'Tis but a flesh wound!
...And so ends this doujinshi. It's been a while, how are you all doing? Lately, I've been eating so much meat that my gut's starting to sag a little, but I can still scarf down food like "who cares if I regret it later", so I'm doing alright.

This time we had "The little sister story that I meant to put in Volume 5 but ran out of time for" and "The Nasshii story that I had thought of but couldn't find a good place for", and lastly, "The Takano-san story that I drew a long time ago as a volume extra, but never found a good time for".

I actually drew the little sister chapter to go along with "Temptation" (ch. 70), but my wife was so strict about checking it that I had to redraw it 4-5 times, but I'm glad I was finally able to show it to you.
I won't allow my manga children to do ecchi things as long as I live. Mhm.
It was really fun working on a doujinshi again after all this time.

Everyone that went out of their way to buy these doujinshi must truly truly love Tsurezure. I'll keep working hard from now on too, in order to continue bringing you the fun everyday life of the children.

Thank you very much.
Thank you very much.
